Strategies to boost your bottom line.

Eplica empowers small to midsize staffing companies to boost bottom lines and focus on what they do best.

Get more, spend less.

Eplica clients save an average of 4 percent or more on annual temporary payroll expense. Our business services give you cost-effective and time-efficient resources that put you in control.

Resources, resources, resources.

We support your business with expertise. Our leaders have first-hand staffing experience complemented by a team of specialists in payroll, benefits, risk mitigation, marketing, safety training and more.

Upgrade your infrastructure.

Fancy tools for business operations usually require hefty investments that may not be an ideal fit for your company. Eplica delivers powerful tools like Staff Track, our Web-based timekeeping system. We will meet your needs without a “big business” price tag.

Our relationships produce results – guaranteed.

We’re committed to building relationships based on:

Understanding.

Eplica’s services are designed exclusively for staffing companies. We’ve worked with businesses in every stage of growth, so you’ll discover a talented lineup of experts that understand your needs.

Response.

Our team serves as an extension of your company, so we’re committed to keeping pace with your staffing business. You’ll appreciate our consistency and fast turnaround.

Flexibility.

Our services are scalable and allow you to enhance your business as needed. Plus, as a nationwide service provider, Eplica makes expansion into new markets easier by managing state-by-state compliance, taxes, safety regulations and Workers’ Compensation.

Eplica clients save an average of 4 percent or more on annual temporary payroll expense.

We turn obstacles into opportunity.

Eplica is privately held and run by staffing industry experts, so we share your entrepreneurial spirit and understand how to manage the ups and downs of staffing. Our business services support start-ups, multimillion-dollar companies and everything in between, without ever losing our attention to detail and hands-on approach.

Take the next step.

We're ready to build a service plan that's guaranteed to enhance your profits and your business. All we need is a little of your time to learn about your company, goals and challenges. In about a week, we'll share some service combinations that will deliver value and results.
